Prologue

In the pages that follow, we unfold "A Drama in 25 Years." Our theme, which is the Silver Anniversary of Woodrow Wilson High School, is combined with the excitement and color of the theater in order to present the high-lights of the past quarter century in addition to a vivid picture of the past year. Our thanks and appreciation are given to those who may have helped us in presenting this book to you. Acknowledgment is given and appreciation expressed to the staff of the Belmont College Tower for use of certain art materials from their 1946 yearbook

It should go without saying that while publishing pictures and facts about prominent Woodrowites we have been forced, for lack of space and information, to omit reference to many others who have been equally outstanding in their achievements.

Hail, Alma Mater,
Hats off to you!

Ever you'll find us

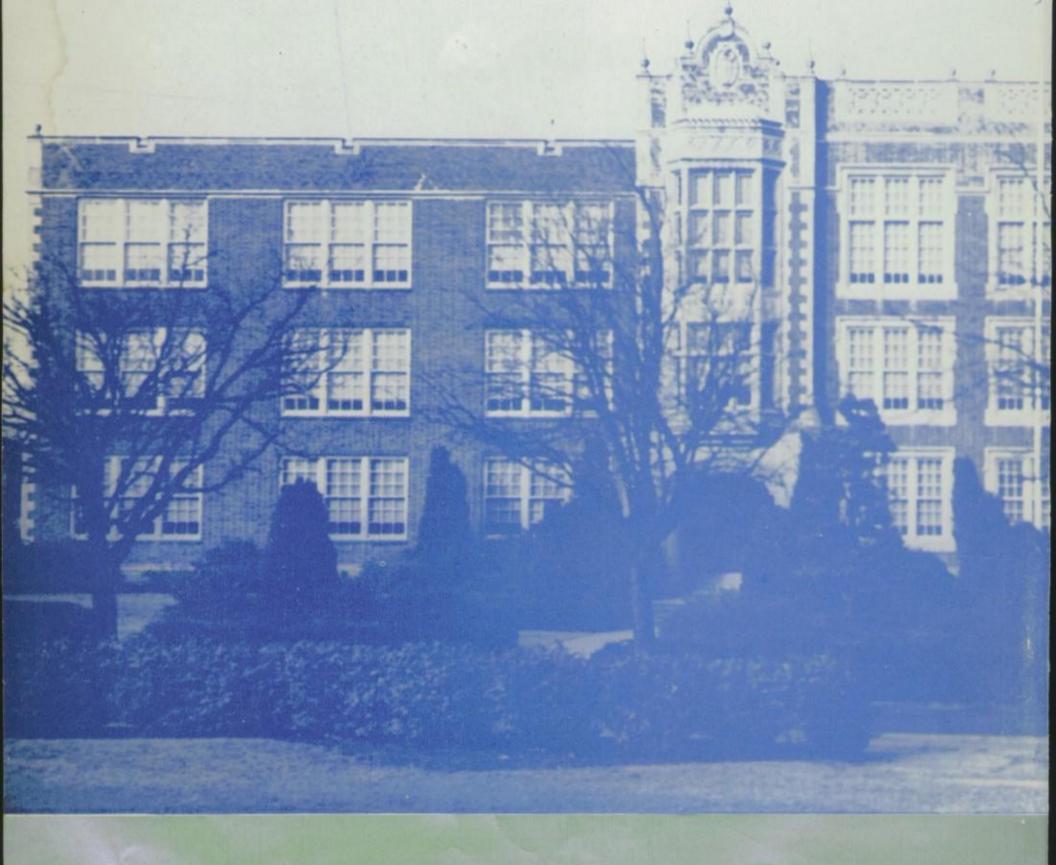

Loyal and true.

Firm and undaunted

Ever we'll be,

Hail to the school we love,

Here's a toast to thee!

We Proudly Dedicate this Book to the Spirit of "Woodrow"

TO US, "WOODROW" MEANS...

The beautiful emcees and "ham acting" of our Senior Assembly.

The last dance of our Senior Dance.

Beginning each day with the scripture reading.

The thrill of thrills on receiving the long-sought sheepskin.

The fun, fellowship, and food of the special "spreads" in The bewildered and yet awed sophomore. The bi-weekly reading of the Woodrow Wilson News. The spine-tingling cheers, and . . . The snappy step and the martial music of the Wednesday morning parade. Taking our bow in the auditori on Senier Day ... The sober end of that all-important pep rally.

Time has improved the surroundings of Woodrow Wilson High School, but the structure itself remains essentially the same. The 1928 (or earlier) model car on muddy Glasgow Drive has given way to high-powered convertibles, sedans, and trucks on a floor-like pavement. The infant shrubs shown on the campus are now in full maturity. Additional buildings dot the once vacant lots.

The clipping of the story of the "Housewarming" of Woodrow Wilson was published in the September 15, 1928, issue of the Dallas Morning News and is reproduced from a microfilm of that issue.

Dallas' newest and finest school building-perhaps the finest in Texas-the Woodrow Wilson High School, was inspected by about £000 persons Friday night at a housewarming which opened the institution.

Huddreds of automobiles were parked about the structure, which, fully equipped, cost about $700,000. and the campus and corredors of the building awarmed with admiring people.
Although the skies were threatening, with lightning flashing re-peatedly, a great part of the crowd seemed in to hurry to get home until after thoroughly inspecting the structure. And rain began falling long before the event was neer. The shower was brief, how-

President Boude Stores of the Dallas Board o' Education outlined growth of the school system at a short program held in front of the school building early in the evening. He pointed out that in 1901 Dallas had only one high school. Bryan High, with an enrollment of about $00 - not all of these being high school students and that now the city has six high and that now the rity has six high schools for white students and one for negro students with an earoll-ment of about 10,000. The school aystem includes many-eight schools, with more than 60,000 students, including districts annexed recently. During the last forty years Dallas schools have, practically doubled each decade said Storey.

KEEP THY REHRT WITH HLL DILIGENCE

Down through the years teachers in the city of Dallas have considered it a privilege to teach at Woodrow Wilson. And also throughout the years, the instructors at Woodrow have distinguished themselves in other ways besides doing their jobs to the very best of their ability.

Many of the teachers have wide and varied interests and some have become quite prominent. Rush Caldwell, a history teacher for some years, was elected President of the Texas State Teachers' Association. Fred Erney, who taught Woodrow students science before 1930, wrote the book, Write a Conclusion, a general science text. Miss Myrtle Roberts, who is teaching history in Room 111 at the present time, is also the author of a textbook, Pattern for Freedom, printed this year for high school American history students.

FRED ERNEY

RUSH CALDWELL

MYRTLE ROBERTS

The kindly-voiced person who makes the announcements "on the air," boosts our school spirit with his pep talks, appeals to our better nature to conduct ourselves aright, is our "Pop" — our principal. He is the only principal Woodrow Wilson High School has had; thus, he is synonymous with "Woodrow". It can truly be said that what "Woodrow" means to the students would be meaningless without Principal G. L. Ashburn.

"Pop" at Graduation: "Pop" Ashburn speaks before presenting that valuable piece of paper to the graduating students.

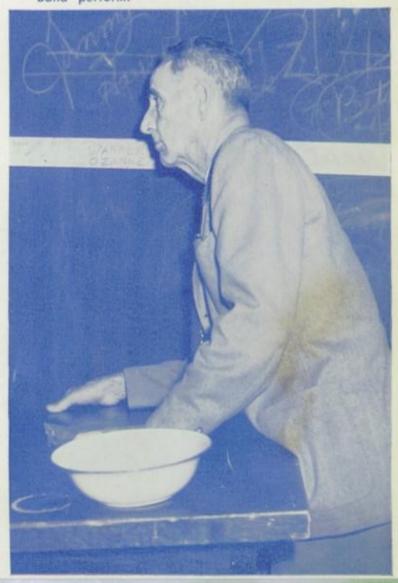

"Pop" in Office: "Pop" makes the daily announcements and gives the word of advice or praise to the students. Signs off with a genial "'S all."

"Pop" Back Stage: "Pop" Ashburn from backstage with pride and admiration, watches the Wildcat Band perform.

"Pop" at School: Coeds Helen Fasan, Carole Banks, Claudette Cockrell, and Carolyn Hope catch "Pop" just in time to get his advice on a problem.

KEEP THY REHRT WITH HLL DILIGENCE

Success and renown have come to not-a-few graduates of Woodrow Wilson High School. Though it is agreed that success is not measured by how prominent a person is in the world, the names of prominent people are familiar to the Woodrow Wilson Family — names like Wallace Savage, ex-mayor of Dallas; Ralph Baker, President Dallas Bar Association; Lawrence Marcus, of Neiman-Marcus; and Ed Bearden, costume designer. In the pictures reproduced are (left) Ed Bearden, Lawrence Marcus, Dr. Max Cole, Prominent Dallas Physician. (Below) John Rosenfield, Jr., artist; Carr Collins, Jr., insurance executive; and Wallace Savage.

"High school at last" is the thing that's on the minds of most 2 B's when they enter Woodrow. When the 2 B's become 2 A's they are the most energetic, and the most lively people you'll find in the student body. When the sophomore becomes a junior, a new phase of his school life is introduced to him. He now has more confidence in himself and he's an all-round good guy. Everybody likes him; the sophomores envy him, and the seniors respect him. He's in!

Overture

Band Roster

The "pride and joy" of Woodrow Wilson students is their band. Hailed as the "best in the land" by the students themselves, the band, whose membership reached over 100 members this year, is undoubtedly one of the best in the State of Texas. A real credit to one of the best schools in the State of Texas.

Welcome on any occasion, the Woodrow Wilson Orchestra, led by Mrs. Evelyn Robbins, performs to such a degree of perfection that it is considered of professional caliber. This year the orchestra had eleven members to go to Galveston, Texas, for the All-State Orchestra. Well represented in All-City Orchestra, the members make a number of trips outside of Dallas each year.

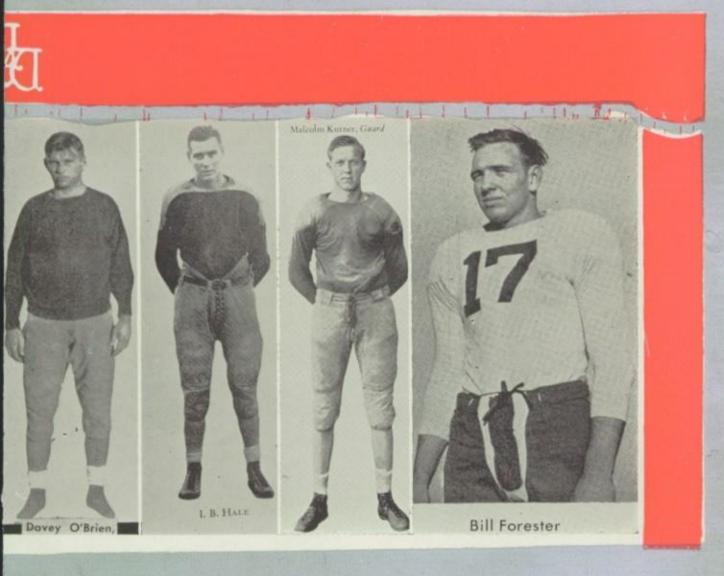

KEEP THY REHRT WITH HLL DILIGENCE

All through the years Woodrow Wilson has rated with the best in athletics. With spirit and teamwork they have remained unexcelled. Many former Woodrowites have gone on to greater victories after graduating. I. B. Hale, Wildcat blocker in 1934; David O'Brien, captain of the football squad in 1935; Mal Kutner; Leonard Akin; Red Maley and Bill Forester are former Wildcats who became All-Americans. In 1938 the Woodrow Wilson Basketball Squad under the expert direction of Coach Howard Kitchen bounced all the way to victory by winning city, district, regional, and state championships. The years '37 and '38 were great ones in Woodrow's sports history. The Track team won the regional meet, and the Wildcats rocketed down the field to be city champions in football. Track teams have added to Woodrow Wilson's honors by capturing state championships in 1931 and 1937. Another state championship was won in 1948 by a Wildcat swimming team. During the current year a Woodrow Wilson Junior, Barbara Galleher, won second National Women's A.A.U. tumbling championship.

FOR OUT OF IT ARE THE ISSUES OF LIFE

Spectacular Plays, Cheering Fans

Those who steered the way for our '52 Wildcat team are: head coach, J. C. Riley; assistant coach, Bobby Griffin; backfield coach, Melton Owen; and line coach, Don Helms.

Keeping things going and doing much for the team, but getting little recognition are the managers: Jimmy Christon, Floyd Bloom, and Walter Bent

The silver and flame have put their mark on the records in a'l of the sports. In the past twenty-five years, the Wildcat eleven have racked up six city championships and one district cup. Wilson is also proud of the fact that six All-Americans, Davey O'Brien and I. B. Hale, T.C.U.; Mal Kutner, Texas; Leonard Akin, Baylor; Red Maley, Kelly Simpson, and Bill Forester, S.M.U., have played for them. The Wildcats are looking forward to producing All-Americans and more winning teams.

Thirty-one Gridmen

FLOYD BLOOM, manager of the "A" team for two years, has earned one letter.

CLUTCHING THE BALL, Woodrow Wilson's Bill Woerner wrenches himself from two Jeff Davis arm tacklers. The other Woodrow player is Phil Galvez (39), in a game that the Wildcats won, 25-12.

CHARLES COX, who holds down the right halfback spot, has been on the "B" squad one year and on the "A" one year and has earned one letter.

Johnny-on-the-spot, JOHN DELA-PORTE, holds the quarterback position. Having played on the "B" as well as the "A" team, Johnny has one letter.

Junior, BOBBY EWEL, holds the full-back spot. Bobby, who has had two years on "A" team, and two letters was selected on the TLMES HERALD'S All-City first RONNIE MASON, Junior, holds left end spot. He has served on "B" squad one year, "A" squad one year, and has one letter.

Blond DAVID MICHELL, has secured right guard for the last two years on the "A" squad, and has earned two letters. David was selected for All-City first teams of both the TIMES HERALD and DALLAS NEWS.

SHOULDERING a North Dallas Bulldog is Curly Johnson (22) as Herbert Gibson (69) and Dayle Conine (5) gallop to secure the tackle. Woodrow won the Cotton Bowl game, 26-6.

WAYNE PACE, right guard, has served one year on "B" team, and one year on "A" team, and also has one letter.

Modest PAUL TATOM, right end, played one year on the "B" team and one year on the "A" team, and has earned one letter.

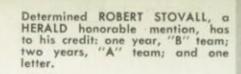

GERALD TEMPLIN, fullback, played one year on the "A" team, and has one letter.

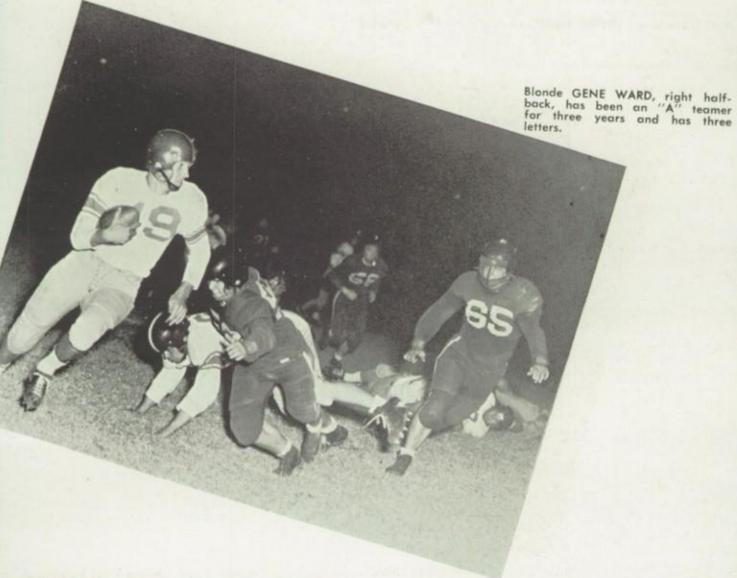

On All-District Team

IT OF REACH of a Tech tackler is Gene Ward (19), Wildcat back, as gains yardage in the Woodrow-Tech game. Johnny Williams (66) d Ronnie Mason (77) are the other Wildcats pictured. Woodrow eated Tech 14-0.

Stocky JOHNNY WILLIAMS, left tackle, has served two years on the "A" squad and has one letter.

Bouncin' BILL WORENER, who was selected on the DALLAS NEWS' first team, played left halfback one year on the "B" team, two years on the "A" team, and has earned two letters.

Quarterback HAL STOCKTON, has played on the "A" team three years and has two letters.

Ranger JAMES ZELLER, right tackle, has been on the "A" team two years and has one letter.

Gridders Match Weight, Speed, and Teamwork With Opponents

IT'S UP AND OVER the center of the Forest line as Wildcat sophomore, Tommy Hall (23), goes for a touchdown. Making the block for Hall is Hal Stockton (11). Woodrow won the game, 20-14.

FINAL LUNGE is made by Woodrow's Doyle Conine (5) in an attempt to stop Billy Kidd, Sunset fleet halfback, as he skirts left and barely out of reach. Sunset went ahead to win the Thanksgiving Day game, 6-0.

SNOWBALL, the mascot which adopted the Wildcat football team during pre-season practice, is now a familiar figure in the halls and on the campus of Woodrow.

1952 Cheerleaders

No Harder Workers or More Loyal Fans

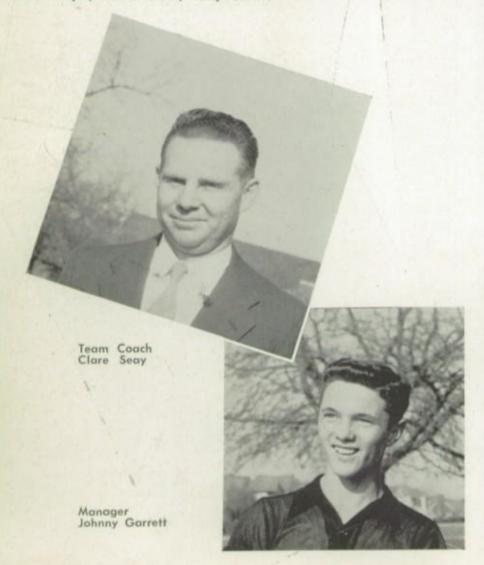

W-W-i-l-d, C-C-a-t-s, the ringing words of a football cheer; the flash of red and grey; seven energetic people posed like statues: The Wildcat Cheerleaders! Those seven guys and gals who are the 1952 cheerleaders hardly resemble the first ones in 1934. This was the first year the young Woodrow Wilson High School elected cheerleaders to lead the student body. Nineteen years later the Triple "W" led by these school favorite cheer our football team to victory in the 1952 football season.

Coached by Bobby Griffin these sophomores are training themselves for the "A" team. A person would be surprised to see the co-ordination and smooth performance of these "B" teamers. The Woodrow Wilson Military Department has long boasted the largest preparatory-school R.O.T.C. in the world. Its achievements through the years have proved commensurate with its excellence in size. Hundreds of young men graduates have used their military training received here to achieve rapid promotions and honors in the armed services. Woodrow Wilson is proud of its sons who have served in recent conflicts and has honored some 123 youths (named on the Honor Roll at left) who gave "the fullest measure of devotion."

MAJOR R. M. NEHER Commandant of Cadets

MAJOR R. M. NEHER, who has been commandant at Woodrow Wilson for thirteen years, first came here in 1928 as a mathematics teacher. A veteran of World War I, Major Neher received his education at Manchester College of Indiana, the University of Indiana, East Texas State Teachers' College, and the University of Texas.

FIRST LIEUTENANT JOSEPH A. FRANKS came to Woodrow two and one-half years ago, having been with the occupation troops in the Philippine Islands and Japan. Altogether Lt. Franks has served five years with the United States Army. He is assistant professor of military science and tactics.

MASTER SERGEANT MELVIN W. CLARK, supply sergeant and instructor in theory, has been here seven years. During World War II, Sergeant Clark served in Europe, Africa, and Sicily.

SERGEANT FIRST CLASS EDDIE E. PICKETT, has served in the army sixteen years. During World War II, he saw service in such places as the South Pacific, occupation in Germany for three years, and fourteen months in Korea. For two years Sergeant Pickett has been drill leader and instructor in theory at Woodrow.

sergeant first class eugene V. Kirk came to Woodrow in March, 1952, as rifle team and theory instructor. He has been in the army sixteen years, in which he saw time in the South Pacific during World War II and nineteen months in Korea.

KEEP THE BEHRT WITH HLL DILIGENCE

Organizations and clubs have come and gone from Woodrow Wilson in the past twenty five years — organizations such as the Latin Club and Le Circle Français. Three clubs that have flourished through the quarter century are the Girl Reserves, the Hi-Y, and the Little Theater. Students of Spanish have had a club every year since 1928, though not under the same name. The Girl Reserves, whose name was changed to Y-Teens in 1947, is the only club that has been active every year since it was first organized in 1928. Another organization, which came and has since gone, was the "Crusaders," a girls' drum, bugle, and fife corps. It was organized in 1935 and disbanded after 1937.

Junior Red Cross Diligence, Generosity, Humanitarianism

The Red Cross Organization is made up of students chosen by their classmates for their interest in Red Cross work and their individual qualities of leadership. These students work diligently to promote a spirit of generosity among their fellow classmates. War orphans and needy children overseas owe many thanks for welcomed little packages collected by the Red Cross members.

Woodrow Wilson News Gives a Clear Report of High School Life

"Every issue is better than the last one." This is one of the remarks heard every other Friday when the Woodrow Wilson News comes out. The News is sponsored by the journalism department and written and edited by journalism students. Today's journalism students are tomorrow's journalists, seems to be the ideal held out to these hard-working youths.

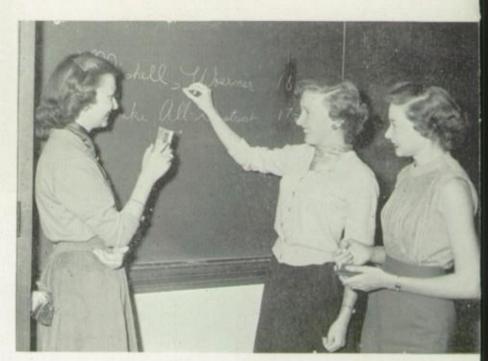

Pat Jones, Norma Mobley, and Sylvia Males examine old cuts for the coming edition of the school periodical.

Marilyn Hale, Co-editor fall term

Deciding on headlines for the next issue of the paper are: Joan Blair, Barbara Bruce, and Betty Bell.

Patsy Rose (seated), Clarissa Kirk, Barbara Jensen, Patsy owell, and Ann Austin read the newspapers as part of eir Journalism course.

Elaine Rosamond examines a "cut" while Judy Knight, Henrietta Potashnich, Louann Kennedy, Sherry Rogers, Dixie Orem, Jane Ruhland, and Carol Harvey read newspapers.

WACIL McKNIGHT, co-editor in charge of the introductory section, records the day's CRUSADER sales.

Permanent Record in Words and Pictures

"The reward of a thing well done is to have done it." So wrote the editor of the first CRUSADER, Wallace Savage, later to become Mayor of Dallas. John Bourland was associate editor and there were fifteen other boys and girls on the staff.

The 1929 Crusader was dedicated to the ideals of President Woodrow Wilson, and contained a reprint of a letter from his widow, Mrs. Edith Bolling Wilson.

The 150-page book contained a humor section and quips about different seniors which is not included in the Senior Publication.

The present staff is composed of twelve senior girls who are chosen by Mr. Allen on the recommendations of the faculty.

Filing club cards is one of the duties performed by MARGIE SHARBER, co-editor and activities editor.

JANIE HANSON, artist and features editor, decides on lettering for the title page of the CRUSADER.

Favorites, not only at Woodrow but to the rest of the world, are such people as Barbara Gentry, known to us "Alice of Dallas" winner for 1952; Cynthia Barnes, written up in a 1949: Ladies Home Journal feature "Profile of Youth" in a portrait of life at Woodrow Wilson; Georgia Carroll, famous Powers Model and movie starlet, who later married Kay Kyser; Annelle Hayes, actress-wife of actor Mark Stevens; and Bob Stanford, Dallas television star. Woodrowites of the years 1946-1948 remember Norma Bogan as the girl who was photographed with most of the famous cinema stars. She is pictured below with actors, Van Johnson, and Ronald Reagan. These persons and more ex-students who have achieved success in the more glamorous careers as actors, actresses, TV performers, and singers are all remembered by the students and the faculty. In the pictures shown besides Miss Boggan and her famous subjects are (left) Annell Hayes, Bob Stanford, Cynthia Barnes, (right), Georgia Carroll, and Barbara Gentry.

These "hicks" posing for the camera make one wonder from under what rock they came; but on closer inspection, they are recognized as Mike Connell, Carolyn Owens, Johnny Delaporte, Pat Preston, Terry Irby, Harlan Wright, and Sylvia Males at the "Sadie Hawkins" Dance.

"Winter Wonderland" theme finds dancing couples in rhythm with the music of the Senior Dance.

IMPORTANT OCCASIONS

Dianne Hopkins and Suzanne Burnett, a one of the important assemblies.

Mr. and Mrs. Matty Bell were special guests at the Woodraw-Long Football Banquet.

Climax of all important occasions is the breathless moment when the senior receives his "sheepskin," dramatized here by Betty Jenn Munter, Valedictorian of the January, '30, class.

CHAPTER 1: Once upon a time in room 209 there was being held a contest between the loyal subjects of King Bush I, in which the winners were rewarded with Senior Play parts. (Earl Carter and Joan Blair do their bit in the contest).

CHAPTER II: The winners of the contest were so happy they immediately sent messages home by white doves to tell the good news. (Jo Ann Griffin, Mary Emily Ferguson, Betty Bell, Esther Crawford, Earl Carter, Marietta Pratt, phone home.)

CHAPTER III: All the attendants in the palace received a ribbon showing their authority from the prime minister to participate in the day's festivities. (Seniors receive their "Senior" banners from class president, Timothy Dorough.)

CHAPTER IV: The court literature was sold, and all enjoyed themselves on the festive day. (Buford Cates sells "The Chlorophyll Cat" to students.)

a Senior Day

CHAPTER IX: The winners of the play contest prepared themselves for the great drama, "Pride and Prejudice," which ended the day of festival. The court members then retired and left behind them many happy days for all the future courtiers. (H. Bush Morgan adds silver to the hair of Bill Bowers before the Senior Play while the rest of the cast watches.)

CHAPTER VIII: The most scholarly of the court received high honors from the ultimate authorities. (Seniors Carroll Morris and Betty Jean Hunter learn that they have highest grades from Counselor Bonnie Wilkins and Principal G. L. Ashburn.)

CHAPTER VI: The jesters were at their funniest; the whole crowd cheered them. (Wrestler, Bobbie Schroeder, downs Betty Green, while Carol Gutherie intervenes.)

> CHAPTER VII: After the entertainment came the feasting, where everyone ate his fill and enjoyed himself.

CHAPTER V: The court jesters prepared themselves for the big occasion, the Senior Assembly. (Nearest the camera are Esther Crawford, Robert McGlashen, Earl Carter, Henry Stover and Leon Withers.)

Pogo Pogo

Pogo

"I go Pogo!" was the battlecry that rang through the halls at Woodrow Wilson during the presidential campaign last September. Walt Kelly, creator and campaign manager of Pogo, the students favorite candidate, expressed his appreciation by presenting 500 "Pogo buttons" to the Wildcats and introducing Pogo to the Silver Crusader, as shown in picture.

Co-editor, Wacil McKnight, finds Pogo an obilging person when he has nice words for the Silver Crusader. Pogo creator Walt Kelly looks on.

WILDCATS EVERYWHERE

1. Hiding something girls? It isn't cold.

2. Bobby Stovall makes like "Heap Big Clown" for Gayle Smith. 3. Sad, tired moment at Thomas Jefferson game.

4. Drusilla Grant and Harlan Wright receive Quiz 'Em honors.

5. The football team ate in style on their trip to San Antonio.

6. Newspaper day in Mr. Allen's room (I remember the hat).

1. Earlina Crawford really got her man.

- 2. Nancy Blackwood waits patiently for Seniors to sign her Year Book.
- Fans enjoyed going to the out-of-town games and eating together.
 Spring training, maybe?
- 5. Bob Rucker, Emy Weed, Pat Green chat with cheer leaders (at San Antonio), Bobbie and Sharon.
 - 6. Tune in every day, same time, same place, same O. E. Parris.

AND HERE AND THERE

- 1. May Jean Crowder seems to be enjoying herself. Reckon?
- 2. Miss Parsons, Mrs. Cooper and girls treat Miss Hayes to a surprise birthday party.
 - 3. Wendall Landsdowne was a little tied down at Camp Dallas.
- 4. Patti Porter and Donna Willet, with others, enjoyed the ride to San Antonio on P.-T.A. sponsored bus.
 - 5. Industrious fans come a long way to cheer at this game.
 - 6. Wacil McKnight, what are you up to now?

A happy group of would-be thespians are these newly-chosen members of the June Senior play cast hearing director H. Bush Morgan read the drama "Gown of Glory".
